REGULAR MEMBERS

Regular membership is limited to general contractors who have been in construction for at least two (2) years prior to applying for membership in AGC and who have established a reputation for SKILL, RESPONSIBILITY and INTEGRITY. A general contractor is defined as a construction firm owned and operated by an individual, a partnership, a corporation, or a joint venture who contracts to perform construction work in its entirety, and who executes such work, in a whole or in part, with his own constructing forces and equipment.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

Associate Membership is limited to subcontractors who have successfully engaged in construction for at least two (2) years prior to applying for membership in AGC and who have established a reputation for SKILL, RESPONSIBILITY, and INTEGRITY. A subcontractor is defined as any person, partnership or corporation engaged in building construction and who, pursuant to subcontract, customarily furnishes labor, or labor and materials, for building construction projects at the job site.

VISITING MEMBERS

Visiting members must meet the same eligibility requirements as the regular member. However, this membership is limited to general contractors who are working in the West Central Ohio area on a temporary basis.

AFFILIATE MEMBERS

Affiliate membership is limited to only those individuals, firms, or corporations engaged principally in the manufacture and/or sale of materials and/or equipment and/or services used by contractors engaged in construction and/or who employ personnel directly connected with the construction industry, or those whose activities are related to the construction industry and who have successfully been engaged in that business for at least two (2) years and who have established a reputation for SKILL, RESPONSIBILITY and INTEGRITY.
